ΕΛΙΑΜΕΠ ELIAMEP
ΕΛΛΗΝΙΚΟ ΙΔΡΥΜΑ ΕΥΡΩΠΑΪΚΗΣ & ΕΞΩΤΕΡΙΚΗΣ ΠΟΛΙΤΙΚΗΣ HELLENIC FOUNDATION FOR EUROPEAN & FOREIGN POLICY
20 ΧΡΟΝΙΑ YEARS

BertelsmannStiftung

The EU and its Neighbours:
In Search of New Forms of Partnership

With the support of :
European Commission, DG Education and Culture, Jean Monnet Action

List of Participants

Sounio – Greece, July 3-6.7.2008

Altmann Franz-Lothar (Prof.),

Fellow, Alexander S. Onassis Foundation, Athens; Associate Professor, University of Bucharest

e-mail: franz_lothar_a@hotmail.com

Professor Franz-Lothar Altmann currently holds an A. S. Onassis Foundation fellowship at ELIAMEP in Athens. He is a Member of the Board of the `Southeast Europe Association´, Munich and Vice President of EALIZ. He is Associate Professor for Intercultural Relations at the University of Bucharest, Romania. He is also Editor-in-chief of Osteuropa-Wirtschaft and Member of the Editorial Board of the *Journal for Southeast European and Black Sea Studies (*quarterly). He has written nine books and some 230 articles on East- and Southeast-European economics and politics, transformation, European integration and enlargement. He has also received several research awards, among which AIESEC (Prague 1968), Kennan Institute/Woodrow Wilson Center (Washington DC 1985/86), Fulbright (Washington 1985), Japan Society for the Promotion of Science (Sendai/Tokyo 1994).

Anagnostou Dia (Dr.)

Senior Research Fellow, ELIAMEP, Athens; Lecturer, University of Macedonia, Thessaloniki

e-mail: danagnos@eliamep.gr

Dia Anagnostou Dia Anagnostou is a Lecturer of Politics at the Department of Balkan and Slavic Studies at the University of Macedonia in Thessaloniki, and Research Fellow at ELIAMEP. She received her undergraduate degree (B.A) with honours from Mount Holyoke College, in South Hadley, MA, in the USA, and completed her PhD in the Department of Government at Cornell University (1999). In 1991-92, Ms. Anagnostou received a Sage Fellowship and in 1996-97 a Mellon Fellowship from Cornell University. In 1994-95, she was awarded an International Dissertation Fellowship for research in Europe, from the Social Science Research Council in New York. Dia Anagnostou was a Visiting Scholar at the Institute of Balkan Studies in the Bulgarian Academy of Sciences in Sofia in 1995-96, a Mary O'Boyle Post-doctoral Fellow at the Hellenic Studies Program at Princeton University in 1999-2000, and a Jean Monnet Fellow at the Robert Schuman Centre in the European University Institute in 2000-2001. Her research interests lie in the fields of comparative politics of Southeast Europe and European integration, and she has published on the topics of ethnic politics, nationalism, minorities and human rights.

Arisan-Eralp Nilgun (Ms.),

Director of National Programme, Secretariat General for European Union Affairs, Prime Ministry of Turkey, Ankara

e-mail: narisan@abgs.gov.tr

Nilgun Arisan-Eralp is a graduate of Middle East Technical University, Economics Department (1982). She has a M.A. in Economic Development from Leicester University (UK, 1984) and a M.Sc. in European Studies from the LSE (UK, 1991). She has been working in the public sector on EU issues since 1987. She started as an advisor to the Minister of State in charge of European Community Affairs (Prof. Dr. Ali BOZER), then worked with Deputy Prime Minister Prof. Dr. Erdal İNÖNÜ. During the final phase of the customs union negotiations with the EU, she was Assistant to the Chief Advisor of the Prime Minister on Relations with the European Union (Dr. Ali TİGREL). Before being appointed Director of National Programme in the Secretariat General for the EU Affairs (Prime Ministry of Turkey) in 2000, she was Head of Department in the General Directorate of Relations with the EU of State Planning Organization. She has also taught part time courses on EU affairs at Middle East Technical University, Ankara University and Bilkent University. She has authored a number of publications on Turkey's EU accession process.

Athanasopoulos Angelos (Mr.),

Diplomatic Editor, To Vima, Athens

e-mail: juve@dolnet.gr

Angelos Athanasopoulos was born in Athens in 1975. He studied Journalism and Mass Media at Panteion University, Athens, before realizing that his real field of interest was international relations. He holds a M.A in International Relations and Strategic Studies from the Department of International and European Studies, Panteion University. He has been working at "To Vima" newspaper since 1997, initially as a sports editor and since 2000, as an international news editor. He was deputy editor-in-chief of the international news department of the daily edition (2006 – 2007), before becoming a diplomatic news editor in November 2007. Since September 2006, he is a regular columnist for "To Vima" daily, writing on international and diplomatic news. In 2002, he worked with two distinguished colleagues, Alexis Papahelas and Tasos Telloglou, in writing the book "Folder November 17th", which presented the history of Greece's largest terrorist organization. He has also worked for the New Greek Television (NET). He has published academic articles, mainly concerning the Balkans (Kosovo and Bosnia), and is currently doing research on the future of transatlantic relations. In 2006, he was a German Marshall Fund (GMF) Journalism Fellow and travelled around the Balkans and he has been selected as a European Marshall Memorial Fellow of the GMF for 2008. In the past, he conducted research for the Institute of Strategic and Development Studies (ISTAME) – Andreas Papandreou. He speaks English, French and enjoys travelling.

Benachenhou Abdellatif (Prof.),

Professor of Economic Science; Former Minister of Finance of the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria, Algiers

e-mail: bines@yahoo.fr

Abdellatif Benanchenchou received his Master's Degrees in Economic Sciences and Public Law from the University of Paris in 1966 and his PhD in Economic Sciences in 1969. He has taught at the University of Algiers and Paris X and over the years has served as: Minister of Finance, Senior Economic Advisor in the Cabinet of the President of Algeria, Dean of the Faculty of Economic Sciences of the University of Algiers, Secretary General of the Third World Economists' Association, Chairman of the Social and Economic Affairs Commission of the FLN Party and at UNESCO. He has also written and co-authored numerous books on diverse economic issues and has over eighty contributions in various magazines and periodicals.

Brok Elmar (Mr.),

Member of the European Parliament, European People's Party, Brussels

e-mail: elmar.brok@europarl.europa.eu

Elmar Brok is Member of the European Parliament and Member of the Committee on Foreign Affairs. His current political positions include, among others: Chairman of the CDU district Ostwestfalen-Lippe, Chairman of the CDU Federal Advisory Committee on European Policy, Member of the Delegation for the relations with the United States of the European Parliament and Deputy Chairman of the Transatlantic Policy Network Parliamentary Group. In 2003-2004 he served as the EP's representative at the Intergovernmental Conference for the EU Constitutional Treaty (2003/2004), as well as for the treaties of Amsterdam (1996/97), Nice (2000) and Lisbon (2007). Elmar Brok was also EPP Coordinator in the EU-Constitutional Convention and the EP's representative in the Council's Reflection Group preparing for the reform of the Maastricht Treaty.

Cameron Fraser (Dr.),

Director, EU-Russia Centre, Brussels

e-mail: fc@eu-russiacentre.org

Fraser Cameron is a former European Commission advisor and well known policy analyst and commentator on EU and international affairs. He is Director of the EU-Russia Centre, Director of EuroFocus-Brussels, an Adjunct Professor at the Hertie School of Governance in Berlin, and Senior Advisor to the European Policy Centre (EPC) in Brussels. Dr Cameron has been a visiting professor at several universities and is the author of several books and articles on the EU and external relations. His recent books include An Introduction to European Foreign Policy, The Future of Europe and US Foreign Policy after the Cold War (all published by Routledge).

Danilov Dmitri (Dr.),

Director for European Security Studies, Institute of Europe, Russian Academy of Sciences, Moscow

e-mail: dm.danilov@mail.ru

Dr Danilov was born in 1960 in Moscow. He graduated from Moscow University's economic department in 1982 from where he was also awarded his Ph.D in 1987. He is Head of the Department for European Security Studies at the Institute of Europe, Moscow, Russian Academy of Sciences. In the past, (1982-1989) he worked as senior researcher in the analytic cell of the General Staff and participated in the preparation of analytical reports for the Russia government and the public sector, as well as for international organisations. He received the State grant "for distinguished academics" in 2000-2003. He is a full Member of the Russian Academy of Security and Defence and also Member of the Euro-Atlantic Cooperation Association board, the Association of European Studies, and the Steering Committee of the European Security Forum. He specialises on European security institutions, military-political aspects of transatlantic relations, Russian foreign and security policy. He has written 150 scientific publications including articles on peace-keeping, conflict prevention and defence economics.

Demes Pavol (Mr.),

Director, Central and Eastern Europe, Bratislava Office, German Marshall Fund of the United States

e-mail: pdemes@gmfus.org

Pavol Demes has been the Director for Central and Eastern Europe of the German Marshall Fund of the United States since January 2000, and is based in Bratislava, Slovakia. Previously, he served as the Executive Director of the SAIA-Service Center for the Third Sector. He also served as Foreign Policy Advisor to the President of the Slovak Republic (1993-97), and in 1991-92 he was the Slovak Minister of International Relations. An internationally recognized NGO leader, Demes has served on the boards of national and international associations and foundations. Prior to the "Velvet Revolution" in November 1989, Demes was a bio-medical researcher at Comenius University in Bratislava. He is a graduate of Charles University in Prague (1980).

Emmanouilidis Janis A. (Dr.),

Stavros Costopoulos Fellow, ELIAMEP, Athens

e-mail: emmanouilidis@eliamep.gr

Janis A. Emmanouilidis is currently Stavros Costopoulos Research Fellow at the Hellenic Foundation for European and Foreign Policy (ELIAMEP) in Athens, Greece. He has published widely on the EU's overall political and institutional development, the perspectives of differentiated integration in an EU 27+, the Union's foreign, security and defence policy and on EU enlargement. He has been an advisor of various governments, EU institutions, European parties and NGOs on a broad range of issues related to European integration and has commentated widely on EU affairs in the media. Between 1999-2007 and prior to moving to ELIAMEP he was a Senior Research Fellow at the Center for Applied Policy Research (C·A·P) in Munich, Germany, responsible for three research projects related to the reform and enlargement of the European Union run jointly with the Bertelsmann Foundation in Guetersloh, Germany. Before that he worked as a Research Fellow at the Institut für Europäische Politik (IEP) responsible for the research area on the EU's Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP). Janis A. Emmanouilidis has studied international relations and strategic studies in the UK and economics at the University of Erlangen-Nuermberg, Germany.

Evin Ahmet (Prof.),

Executive Board Member, Istanbul Policy Centre, Faculty of Arts and Sciences, Sabanci University, Istanbul

e-mail: aevin@sabanciuniv.edu

Ahmet O. Evin teaches at Sabanci University, where he was the founding dean of Arts and Social Sciences and founding member of the Istanbul Policy Center. He has taught at New York University, Harvard University, University of Pennsylvania (where he also served as director of the Middle East Center), and at the Universities of Hamburg, Bilkent (where he also headed the Department of Political Science and Public Administration), and more recently at Northwestern. In 1994, he initiated a policy dialogue on the future European architecture, EU enlargement, Turkey and the effects of the customs union. Based on that initiative and in cooperation with a broad network of European research institutes and universities, he established Turkey's EU Membership Observatory. He has authored or edited over ten volumes on politics, culture, and development, and served as director of education of the Aga Khan Trust for Culture (Geneva). His current research focuses on EU enlargement, its significance for Turkey, the region, as well as its effect on transatlantic relations.

Farnaud Christophe (Amb.),

Ambassador of France to Greece, Athens

e-mail: ambafran@first.gr

Ambassador Christophe Farnaud was born in 1965 in Castre in southwestern France. He has a Diploma of Advanced Studies in History and is a graduate of the École Normale Supérieure, the Institute of Political Sciences and the École National d' Administration. He has served as Second and later First Secretary at the French Embassy in Cairo, Deputy Special Envoy of the European Union to the Near East, First Counsellor at the French Embassy in Amman and Counsellor to the Minister of Foreign Affairs, the Minister of Interior and the Prime Minister. Since June 2007 he is the French Ambassador in Greece. He is married and has three children.

Fritz-Vannahme Joachim (Mr.),

Director Europe, Bertelsmann Stiftung, Gutersloh

e-mail: Joachim.vannahme@bertelsmann.de

Joachim Fritz-Vannahme studied History, Literature, Politics at University of Freiburg i.Br., Germany, from 1974 to 1980. Staatsexamen (MA) in all three fields. He worked as a newspaper editor at Badische Zeitung from 1980 to 1982. He held the position of Foreign correspondent for Badische Zeitung, Mannheimer Morgen and Basler Zeitung (Switzerland) in France from 1982 to 1988 and joined the German weekly Die Zeit in 1988. Between 1988 and 1992 he was Foreign correspondent for Die Zeit in Paris. He has been Editor, responsible for the science, humanities & education section of Die Zeit in Hamburg, political editor and Deputy Editor-in-chief of Die Zeit (1994-1999). From 1999 to 2007 he worked as European Editor, based in Brussels. Since 2007, he holds the position of Director of European Programme at the Bertelsmann Foundation, Gütersloh in Germany. He is the author of several books, including: Das neue Paris (with H.Jahn) "Wozu heute noch Soziologie?" He has also written a number of essays for Le Monde, L'Express, Le Nouvel Observateur as well as TV-documentaries for Arte TV, the Franco-German programme.

Gawelek Margarethe (Mrs.),

Project Manager, European Neighbourhood Policy, Bertelsmann Stiftung, Gutersloh

e-mail: margarethe.gawelek@bertelsmann.de Margarethe Gawelek obtained a Masters degree in International Relations at the Institut d'Etudes Politiques de Paris. She studied at the Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University and the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, Tufts University in MA, USA. Since March 2008 she is Project Manager for the European Neighbourhood Policy at the Bertelsmann Stiftung. Her previous work experience includes participation in the Operations Division at NATO, the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the German Foreign Office.

Gropas Ruby (Dr.),

Research Fellow, ELIAMEP, Athens

e-mail: ruby@eliamep.gr

Ruby Gropas has been part of the ELIAMEP team since December 2002. She works on European foreign policy, EU-Balkan relations, human rights, multiculturalism and migration, and is also the Managing Editor of the Journal of Southeast European and Black Sea Studies (Taylor & Francis, London). Ruby studied Political Science at the Université Libre de Bruxelles, European Studies at the University of Leuven, and was awarded her MPhil and PhD degrees from Cambridge University (New Hall). She has done research work on asylum and migration issues for UNHCR in Brussels, she has worked for McKinsey & Co. in Zurich and Athens, and has been teaching on EU integration to undergraduate students at College Year in Athens since 2005. She was Southeast Europe Policy Scholar at the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars in Washington DC in 2007. Ruby is the author of "Human Rights and Foreign Policy" (Bruyant 2006) and has co-edited "European Immigration" with Anna Triandafyllidou (Ashgate 2007).

Hegazy Ibrahim (Prof.),

Chairman, Department of Management, The American University in Cairo

e-mail: hegazy@aucegypt.edu

Dr. Ibrahim Hegazy is Chairman of the Management Department and Associate Professor of Marketing at the American University in Cairo (AUC). During the Academic Year 2002/03, Dr. Hegazy was Visiting Marketing Professor at George Washington University, USA. Between 1999 and 2002, he served as Head of the Marketing Academic Division, and between 1996 and 2002, as Executive Director of the Institute of Management Development (IMD) at the American University in Cairo, one of Egypt's leading training centers. Dr. Hegazy is also currently marketing and marketing communications consultant to a number of leading companies in the food, textile, information technology, hospitality, tourism, and real-estate development industries in Egypt. Since 1995, he has implemented more than 230 professional training programs in Egypt and internationally. He has won five international academic awards and in 2004 was awarded the Golden Decoration from the President of Austria in recognition to his outstanding efforts in marketing Austrian cultural events in Egypt. As part of his country public services contributions, Ibrahim Hegazy serves as a member of the Economic Committee of the National Democratic Party and the National Council for Women. Dr. Hegazy was appointed member of the Egypt Tourism Authority Board of Directors where he is in charge of developing Egypt Tourism Marketing and Marketing Communications Plans.

Herdina Andreas (Dr.),

Head of Unit, European Neighbourhood Policy, DG External Relations, European Commission, Brussels

e-mail: andreas.herdina@ec.europa.eu

Dr. Andreas Herdina, in his professional career of 30 years, has been a barrister-at-law, a diplomat and an official of the European Commission. Between 1989 and 1996, he held diplomatic posts in Pakistan and Japan and at the Austrian Permanent Representation to the United Nations in Geneva. He served High Representatives Carl Bildt and Carlos Westendorp in Bosnia and Herzegovina from 1996 to 1999. At the Commission, he has dealt with the Lithuanian EU accession negotiations and nuclear issues in the context of EU enlargement. He was instrumental in mediation efforts facilitating the EU accession of the Czech Republic. Since mid-2003, he is working on the European Neighbourhood Policy.

Hughes Kirsty (Dr.),

Analyst, London

e-mail: hugheskirsty@gmail.com

Kirsty Hughes is a writer, policy analyst and journalist writing on European and international politics. She is an Associate of the Friends of Europe think-tank in Brussels. Her recent work covers topics ranging from EU foreign policy, enlargement, EU-Turkey relations, and EU institutional developments including the politics around the Lisbon Treaty. She has worked at senior level in the European Commission (from 1999-2001) and in various leading think tanks including as Director of the European Programme at Chatham House, UK (1995-1998) and Senior Fellow at the Centre for European Policy Studies, Brussels (2001-2003) where she coordinated the European Policy Institutes Network.

Katsoudas Dimitrios (Mr.),

Secretary General for European Affairs, Ministry for Foreign Affairs, Athens

e-mail: katsoudas@mfa.gr

Dimitrios K. Katsoudas was appointed Secretary General for European Affairs in 2007. He studied law at the University of Athens and Political Behaviour at the University of Essex. From 1978 to 1980 he worked as a Political Analyst at the Centre for Political Research and Information (KEPEE) and he was a regular columnist of the Centre's Journal, "Epikentra". Between 1980 and 1985 he was Head of Information and from 1986 to 1991, Director General of KEPEE, as well as Editor-in-Chief of "Epikentra". In addition he has published a number of articles in prominent foreign academic journals. In 1989 and 1990 he was Head of New Democracy's Strategic Coordination Team and between 1988 and 1991 he was Senior Advisor to K. Mitsotakis while in 1991 he was appointed first Secretary-General for Forests and the Natural Environment (1991-1993). From 1994 to 1996, he became Advisor to New Democracy's Parliamentary Group and from 1996 to February 2007 he was Chief Political Advisor to the incumbent Minister of Foreign Affairs, Ms. D. Bakoyannis. He also served as Secretary General of New Democracy's Committee of Foreign Affairs and Defence (2000-2003). Between 2003 and 2007, Mr. Katsoudas held the office of Senior Advisor on Political and International Affairs of the Mayor of Athens and was the Olympic porte-parole for the City Hall. During the same period he was member of the Board of Directors of the City of Athens Cultural Organisation and, in 2006, its Vice President.

Kempe Iris (Dr.),

Director, South Caucasus Regional Office, Heinrich Boell Foundation, Tbilisi

e-mail: iris.kempe@boell.ge

Iris Kempe is Director of Heinrich Böll Foundation, South Caucasus Regional Office in Tbilisi. She studied Political Sciences, Social Sciences, Current History in Bonn and Berlin, she holds a Master in Politics (Dipl. Poltikwissenschaft) from the Freie Universität in Berlin as well as a Ph.D on "Russia at the Turning Point: The Social Question." She also conducted research on Social Policy from 1991 to 1996" at the Freie Universität in Berlin. She is Senior Research Fellow, responsible for Eastern Europe at the CAP – Bertelsmann Group on Policy Research, Munich since 1997. Ms. Kempe also held the position of Project assistant at the Friedrich Ebert Foundation, Moscow. She is author of numerous publications and comments on international affairs, east-west relations, Eastern Europe, Russia, Ukraine, Moldova and on transition problems: "Presidential Election and Orange Revolution. Implicatons for Ukraine's Transition," Helmut Kurth, Iris Kempe (Eds.), Kiev 2005. "Risks and Challenges Beyond EU Enlargement," Volume I. A Pan-European Policy, (Hrsg.), Leverkusen 2004. "Direct Neighbourhood. Relations between the enlarged EU and the Russian Federation, Ukraine, Belarus and Moldova," Gütersloh 1998; "Russland am Wendepunkt. Analyse der Sozialpolitik von 1991 bis 1996," Wiesbaden 1997.

Khasawnih Sami (Prof.),

Faculty of Educational Sciences, former Vice President of Jordan University, Amman

e-mail: khsawnih@ju.edu.jo

Sami A. Khasawnih, Professor of Educational Administration at the Faculty of Educational Sciences of the University of Jordan, Amman. Prof. Khasawnih received his doctorate from the State University of New York at Albany, 1971. He was also former Dean of the Faculty and former Academic Vice President. He is the author and editor of a number of books focusing on education and cultural relations between the Arab World and Europe, the U.S.A. and Asia. He has numerous publications in refereed journals with special emphasis on education planning, policy making and development, and higher education. He is involved in the work of a number of national, regional and international educational and cultural forums and foundations and has served in different capacities (advisor, consultant, researcher) with national, regional and international centers and organizations (Alesco, Unesco, UNDP and USAID among others).

Kirschke Dieter (Dr.),

Professor, Humboldt University, Berlin

e-mail: dieter.kirschke@agrar.hu-berlin.de

Doctor Kirschke is Member of the Scien¬tific Council for Agricultural Policy of the German Agricultural Ministry. He holds the chair for Agricultural Policy at the Humboldt Univer¬sity of Berlin where he had also been Vice President. He conducts research, teaches and provides policy advice on agricultural policies. Doctor Kirschke focuses on economic policy analysis and EU and international agricultural poli¬cies. His interests include various projects on policy decision-making support.

Krastev Ivan (Dr.),

Chair of the Board of Directors, Centre for Liberal Strategies, Sofia

e-mail: ivan@cls-sofia.org

Ivan Krastev is a political scientist and Chairman of the Centre for Liberal Strategies in Sofia, Bulgaria. He is a founding member and member of the Board of the European Council on Foreign Relations (www.ecfr.eu) and member of the Trilateral Commission. He is an Open Society Fellow and the academic director of the Open Century Project of the Central European University in Budapest. Ivan Krastev was the executive director of the International Commission on the Balkans chaired by former Italian Premier Minister Giuliano Amato. His publications in English include: "The Anti-American Century," CEU Press, 2007; "Shifting Obsessions. Three Essays on Politics of Anti-Corruption," CEU Press, 2004; "Nationalism after Communism, Lessons Learned." Ivan Krastev is a contributor to the op-ed pages to a number of the leading European newspapers, and editor in chief of the Bulgarian Edition of Foreign Policy.

Laïdi Zaki (Prof.),

Director of Research, Centre for European Studies, Sciences Po, Paris

e-mail: zaki.laidi@sciences-po.fr

Professor Zaki Laïdi specialises on the phenomenon of globalization in general and its European aspect in particular. He currently teaches relevant courses at Sciences Po and the College of Europe and has published many books and articles on the subject, including his latest work entitled "EU Foreign Policy in a Globalized World. Normative Power and Social Preferences". Professor Laïdi is also President of Telos and Member of the French Commission on the White Paper on Foreign Policy and European Affairs.

Langdal Fredrik (Mr.),

Researcher, Swedish Institute for European Policy Studies (SIEPS), Stockholm

e-mail: fredrik.langdal@sieps.se

Fredrik Langdal is a researcher in political science at the Swedish Institute for European Policy Studies (SIEPS). His areas of research include European constitutional politics, democratic accountability and electoral participation. At SIEPS he also manages a number of externally commissioned research project relating to*, inter alia*, energy policy, the EU as an actor and migration. Before joining SIEPS in 2002 he was a PhD researcher at the European University Institute in Florence and he holds a Master of European Politics from Lund University. He has published on the role of national parliaments in EU politics, the vertical division of powers, European Parliament election campaigns and on the debate on a Turkish EU-membership.

Lippert Barbara (Dr.),

Deputy Director, Institut fuer Europaeische Politik (IEP), Berlin

e-mail: barbara.lippert@iep-berlin.de

Barbara Lippert studied Political science, Contemporary and Eastern European History and Slavonic studies at University of Bonn and Free University Berlin. She has a doctorate (Dr. phil.) from the University of Bonn. She is Deputy Director of the Institut für Europäische Politik in Berlin (IEP), managing editor of the IEP's quarterly academic journal Integration and was until recently Lecturer at Humboldt University Berlin. She is member of the steering group of the network of excellence EU-CONSENT. She specialises in EU enlargement policy and its implications for the political system and policies of the EU; processes of transformation and integration in Central Europe and Eastern Europe; European Neighbourhood Policy and relations with Eastern Europe; Germany and European integration.

Lobatch Andrei (Prof.),

Senior Project Manager, Foundation for Effective Governance, Kyiv; Former Associate Professor, Belarusian State Economics University, Minsk

e-mail: lobatch@pochta.ru

Andrei Lobatch was Associate Professor at Belarusian State Economics University from 2003 until 2007. His research interests include the EU Neighbourhood Policy and relations between Belarus, the EU and the Russian Federation. He has also served as Associate Dean at Grodno State University (Belarus). Between 1998 and 2000 he was a Senior Researcher at the Center for International Economy at the Ministry of Economy of Belarus. He holds a Ph.D in International Economics and a M.A. in Contemporary European Studies from Sussex European Institute.

Logotheti Maria (Dr.),

Expert Minister Counsellor for EU Affairs, Directorate-General for European Union Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Athens

e-mail: mlogotheti@mfa.gr

Maria Logotheti was born in Athens, Greece. She studied economics at the University of Athens, and European Economy in Paris, Université de Paris II Pantheon. Since 1983, she has been working at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Greece, as a Counselor Expert on European Affairs. In that capacity, she has worked for the Permanent Representation of Greece in the EU and the European Commission, Directorate General for the coordination of structural policies. Since her return to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Greece, she has worked on Trans-European Networks (member of G-24); as a member of the cabinet of the Minister of Transport and Communications responsible for international relations and European Affairs; as a member of the diplomatic cabinet of Alternate Minister of European Affairs, responsible for the EU enlargement and Southeastern Europe; and as a member of the cabinet of the General Secretary for EU Affairs, during the Greek presidency of 2003, responsible for specific issues related to the Greek Presidency. Since 2003 she has been following the EUROMED cooperation in her capacity, initially as a desk officer and then as a member of the office of the Director General for EU Affairs. Currently, she is Expert Minister Counselor of EU Affairs mainly coordinating EU Budget issues, the Barcelona Process: Union for the Mediterranean and EU policies, as well as issues related to community programmes.

Maas Stefan (Mr.),

Journalist, Deutschlandfunk, Cologne

e-mail: Stefan.Maas.fm@dradio.de

Stefan Maas is working for Germany's national public radio station, Deutschlandfunk, as a junior editor, Stefan's main focus is on domestic affairs, but also on European politics. With his colleagues at the "Abteilung Hintergrund" (Background), he is - among other programmes - responsible for a daily twenty-minute programme, which analyses political and economical developments at home and abroad. Mr. Maas has studied journalism and psychology at City University, London and was afterwards accepted to Deutschlandradio's trainee-program. As a trainee he worked in Cologne, Berlin and Brussels.

Manjavidze Dimitri (Mr.),

Deputy State Minister, State Minister's Office for Reintegration, Government of Georgia, Tbilisi

e-mail: dimitri.manjavidze@gmail.com

Dimitri Manjavidze is Deputy State Minister at the State Minister's Office for Reintegration since 2006. He has worked in the Organisation for Security and Co-operation in Europe, Mission in Kosovo, where he held the position of Mission Field Coordinator from 2000 to 2006. He was Director of the Second European Department in the Ministry for Foreign Affairs of Georgia, Tbilisi, Georgia from 1998 to 2000. From 1997 to 1998 he held the position of Head of the OSCE Mission to Tajikistan in the Organisation for Security and Co-operation in Europe, Dushanbe (Tajikistan). Furthermore, he was Head of the West European Division in the Ministry for Foreign Affairs of Georgia, Tbilisi. He has also been researcher and lecturer at Tbilisi State University in the faculty of Oriental studies.

Melyan Ashot (Dr.),

Researcher, Spectrum – Centre for Strategic Analysis, Yerevan

e-mail: A_Melyan@mail.com

Ashot Melyan graduated from Yerevan State University. He completed his Post-graduate studies at the Institute of Oriental Studies, of the National Academy of Sciences of Armenia. He was Expert and Senior Expert of the Permanent Commission for Foreign Relations of the Armenian Parliament from 1992 to 1997. Until 2001 we worked as an Independent consultant and analyst. Since 2001, he is an Analyst of the Center for Strategic Analysis SPECTRUM.

Missiroli Antonio (Dr.),

Director of Studies, European Policy Centre (EPC), Brussels

e-mail: a.missiroli@epc.eu

Antonio Missiroli was a research fellow at the W/EU ISS from 1998 to 2005. He was formerly a lecturer in West European Politics at Dickinson College, as well as Head of European Studies at CeSPI (Rome). He holds a Ph.D. in Contemporary History from the Scuola Normale Superiore (Pisa) and a Master in International Public Policy from SAIS/Johns Hopkins. He is also a professional journalist and commentator on EU and international affairs. Publications include papers and books on CFSP, ESDP, EU institutional matters, Scandinavia, political opposition, Central Europe and Italian foreign policy. His latest publications: Central Europe between the EU and NATO, "Survival", Winter 2004/05; Changements et continuités de la politique italienne, in P.Buffotot (ed.), La defense en Europe, Documentation française, 2005; Disasters, Diseases, Disruptions: A new D-Drive for the EU (editor), EU-ISS, Paris, 2005.

Mitsos Achilleas (Dr.),

Former Director General, DG Research, European Commission, Brussels

e-mail: amitsos@hol.gr

Achilleas Mitsos holds a University degree from AUEB (Athens University for Economics and Business), a Masters degree in economics and a PhD from the University of Pittsburgh, USA. He was Head of the Department on relations with the EEC at the Bank of Greece in 1976, Advisor at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in 1981 and Head of Cabinet of Commissioner G. Varfis in 1985. He was European Commission Director for the Coordination of Structural Interventions in 1987, Vocational Training in 1993 and Human Potential and Socio-Economic Research in 1996 where he also worked as Director General for Research from 2000 to 2006. He is Visiting Professor at the London School of Economics and Political Science since January 2004, and the author of many articles and four books on international economics and European integration

Ostalep Valeriu (Dr.),

Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs and European Integration, Chisinau

e-mail: valeriu.ostalep@mfa.md

Valeriu Ostalep studied at State University of Moldova where he obtained his bachelor degree of Law. In 2001 he undertook a diplomatic education programme at the Netherlands Institute of International Relations and in 2003 attended the Executive Program in International and Security Affairs of G. C. Marshall European Centre for Security Studies in Germany. In 2000 he worked as Attaché of the General Directorate for European Integration, in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, where later in 2002 he served as Head of Section for Security Issues within the National Office for the Stability Pact. In 2004 he was director of the National Office for the Stability Pact for South-eastern Europe and also National GUAM Coordinator. Since 2005 Dr. Ostalep is Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs and European Integration.

Phocas Elisabeth (Ms.),

Deputy Director, ELIAMEP, Athens

e-mail: elizabeth@eliamep.gr

Elizabeth Phocas is Deputy Director at the Hellenic Foundation for European and Foreign Policy (ELIAMEP). She is also General Coordinator of the Halki International Seminars. She received her BA in Political Sciences and Public Administration at the University of Athens and MA in European Politics at the University of Essex where she was also Research Fellow at the East European Studies Department. She was Activities and Development Coordinator before assuming the position of Deputy Director at ELIAMEP. She has knowledge of academic institutions as well as the the NGO and think tanks map in Greece, the Balkans, the EU member states and the US, strong background focused on NGO management and knowledge of the political, economic and technical situation in Eastern Europe. She created successful international project teams that worked efficiently and were action-oriented. She is also the Greek coordinator for both the European and American Marshall Memorial Fellowship Programmes. Since 2007 Elizabeth is Senior International Fellow at the Center on Philanthropy and Civil Society, the City University of New York.

Roberts John (Mr.),

Energy Security Specialist, Platts Energy Group, Jedburgh

e-mail: john@methinks.demon.co.uk

John M. Roberts is Energy Security Specialist with Platts, the world's leading independent source of energy information. Platts is part of the McGraw Hill publishing group. A frequent commentator on global energy issues on BBC television and radio and an acknowledged expert on Caspian and European pipelines, John M. Roberts has also given testimony to UK parliamentary committees on the Russian and Caspian roles in global energy security and on Persian Gulf security issues. His latest study, “Pipeline Politics: The Caspian and Global Energy Security,” is due to be published later this year by the UK's Royal Institute of International Relations (the US publisher is the Brookings Institution). His books include: “Caspian Pipelines” (Royal Institute of International Affairs, London 1996); “Visions & Mirages: The Middle East in a New Era” (Mainstream, Edinburgh, 1995) and “Lebanon, The Summer of '82” (Liban, L'Été '82) (Beirut, 1983).

Rood Jan (Prof.),

Director, European Studies Programme, Netherlands Institute of International Relations, The Hague

e-mail: jrood@clingendael.nl

Jan Rood is since 1 January 2005 director of the Clingendael European Studies Programme (CESP). He studied international political and economic relations at the University of Utrecht. He has a Ph.D. in international political economy. He has been a staff member of the Clingendael Institute since 1987, first as a researcher, later as deputy director of the research department. In 1997 he was appointed as director of the research department. He has a professorship at the University of Utrecht, where he teaches European integration. His main fields of research are the institutional and constitutional development of the European Union, the external relations of the EU and Dutch EU-policy. Jan Rood is a member of the Commission on European Integration of the Dutch Advisory Council on International Affairs.

Schinas Margaritis (Mr.),

Member of the European Parliament, European People's Party, Brussels

e-mail: margaritis.schinas@europarl.europa.eu

Margaritis Schinas studied Law at the University of Thessaloniki, Public Administration and Policy at the LSE and European Administration Studies at the College of Europe in Bruges. He was awarded the Robert Schuman fellowship by the European Parliament. He worked at the European Commission since 1990 in various positions of responsibility mainly in the private offices of Commissioners. He also served as Head of Press and Information in the Commission Representation in Greece (1994-9). During his EU career, he has worked on various issues, such as transport, energy, information, culture and communication, consumers and public health. During the Prodi Commission he was Deputy Head of Cabinet to Commission Vice-President Loyola de Palacio, in charge of transport and energy. From June 2004 until his election to the EP in September 2007, he served as the Head of the Private Office of the first EU Commissioner of Cyprus, Mr Markos Kyprianou, responsible for Public Health, Consumer Protection and Food Safety. Mr. Schinas is currently member of the European Parliament's Budgets Committee, member of the EU-Turkey Joint Parliamentary Committee and substitute member of the Committee of Economic and Monetary Affairs. Mr. Schinas is married with two children and he speaks English, French and Spanish.

Sotiropoulos Theodoros (Amb.),

General Director for European Union Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Athens

e-mail: gendirc@mfa.gr

Born in 1949 in Athens, Greece, Mr. Sotiropoulos received a law degree from the University of Athens. He is married and has one child. He began his diplomatic career in the Foreign Ministry of Greece in 1977, where from 1978 to 1980 he served as Private Secretary to the Minister. He has also served in the following capacities: Head of Consulate, Embassy of Greece in Sofia (Bulgaria) and later as Second Secretary (1980-1984); in the Balkan Section of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Athens (1984 -1989); as Consul General of Greece in Toronto (1989-1993); and at the Embassy of Greece in Bonn (1993-1997).From 1997 to 2003 he served as Head of the Diplomatic Office of the Prime Minister and from 2003 to 2007 he was the Permanent Representative of Greece to the International Organizations in Vienna.Since October 2007, Mr. Sotiropoulos serves in the Greek Foreign Ministry as Director General for European Union Affairs.

Sushko Oleksandr (Dr.),

Research Direrctor Intitute for Euro-Atlantic Co-Operation, Ukraine

e-mail: sushko@cpcfpu.org.ua

Oleksandr Sushko is a research director of the Institute for Euro-Atlantic Co-operation, an independent think-tank based in Kyiv. In 2000-2006 he was a director of the Center for Peace, Conversion and Foreign Policy of Ukraine (CPCFPU), a NGO founded in 1992. Since 2000, Dr. Sushko has served as editor of the Ukrainian Monitor, a journal launched by CPCFPU in 1997 to provide in-depth analysis of the international standing of Ukraine, its role in the European and Euro-Atlantic political processes and its foreign and security policy. Dr. Sushko was a Visiting Fellow of Freedom House and at the Monterey Center for Nonproliferation Studies in 2002. He holds a Ph.D. from the Institute for World Economy & International Relations, National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine (1998).

Świeboda Paweł (Mr.),

Director, demosEUROPA-Centre for European Strategy, Warsaw

e-mail: pawelswieboda@demoseuropa.eu

Paweł Świeboda is a graduate of the London School of Economics and the University of London. He served as the EU Advisor to the President of Poland in the years 1996-2000. He then headed the Office for European Integration in the Chancellery of the President. In the years 2001-2006 he served as Director of the Department of the European Union in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs where he was responsible for EU accession negotiations and subsequently institutional reform in the Union and negotiations on the Financial Perspective. In July 2006 he became President of demosEUROPA – Centre for European Strategy (www.demoseuropa.eu). He is a Member of the Lisbon Council, Member of the Advisory Board of the European Policy Centre, Co-President of BELA (Broader European Leadership Agenda) Foundation, Member of the Council of the Amicus Europae Foundation and Member of the Advisory Board of the Baltic Development Forum. He also serves on the Commission on Europe After 50 set up by Chatham House, the Royal Institute of International Affairs in London and chairs the “L’Esprit de Sel” Group of Experts which is preparing recommendation for the EU Agenda 2020 and is the author of numerous articles on issues of European integration and international relations. He has a column on foreign policy in “Gazeta Wyborcza”, Poland’s largest daily newspaper.

Tempel Peter (Mr.),

Director of European Directorate, German Federal Foreign Office, Berlin

e-mail: Peter.Tempel@diplo.de

Peter Tempel is Director General for European Affairs since April 2006. From 2004 to March 2006 he headed the Private Office of Mr. Günter Verheugen, who is the Vice-President of the European Commission, where he had been responsible for Enterprise and Industry. He was Deputy Head of Private Office of Mr. Verheugen, responsible for enlargement, from 1999 to 2002. He has also been Counsellor at the Permanent Representation of Germany to the EU from 1993 to 1997. From 1983 to 1993 he served in the Federal Foreign Office and diplomatic missions abroad.

Torreblanca José-Ignacio (Dr.),

The European Council on Foreign Relations, ECFR

e-mail: jitorreblanca@ecfr.eu

José Ignacio Torreblanca joined the European Council on Foreign Relations as a Senior Research Fellow and Head of the Madrid Office in September 2007. Previously, he spent three years at the Madrid's based Elcano Royal Institute for International Affairs as Senior Analyst for EU affairs. He has a doctorate in Political Science and Sociology from the Universidad Complutense de Madrid and teaches political science and EU affairs at the distance learning University in Madrid (UNED). He is also Fellow at the Juan March Institute of Studies in Madrid. He has been Fulbright scholar in the European Union-US Program, Lecturer at the George Washington University in Washington DC and a researcher at the European University Institute in Florence. He is also a member of the editorial board of the journal Foreign Policy en español, co-editor of blogeuropa.eu and a regular contributor to the daily EL PAIS.

Tsoukalis Loukas (Prof.),

Professor, University of Athens; President of the Board of Directors, ELIAMEP, Athens

e-mail: tsoukalis@eliamep.gr

Loukas Tsoukalis was born in Athens. He studied economics and international relations at the University of Manchester, the College of Europe in Bruges, and the University of Oxford where he obtained his doctoral degree. Previous appointments include: Visiting Professor at Sciences Po, Paris; Professorial Fellow, Robert Schuman Centre, European University Institute, Florence; Professor at the European Institute of the London School of Economics and Political Science; Director of European Economic Studies, College of Europe, Bruges; President of the Administrative Council and Director of the Hellenic Centre for European Studies (EKEM), Athens; University Lecturer and Fellow of St. Antony's College, Oxford; Ambassador and Special Adviser for EC affairs to the Prime Minister of Greece. He is presently Jean Monnet Professor of European Integration at the University of Athens, President of the Hellenic Foundation for European and Foreign Policy (ELIAMEP), and Visiting Professor at the College of Europe. He is also Special Adviser to the President of the European Commission. He is Member of advisory councils of several European think tanks and international journals and the author of many books and articles on European and international affairs, including The New European Economy and What Kind of Europe? published by Oxford University Press and translated into several European languages. He has received the Commander of the Order of the Phoenix of the Hellenic Republic.

Wihtol de Wenden Catherine (Dr.),

Research Director CNRS/CERI, Paris

e-mail: dewenden@ceri-sciences-po.org

Catherine de Wenden holds a PhD in Political Sciences. She has worked as consultant to numerous organisations, including the OCDE, the European Commission, the HCR and the Council of Europe. From 2002 she heads the "Migrations" research committee of the International Association of Sociology. She is Member of the National Commission of Deontology of the Security since 2003. She is also Member of the Editorial Committee of the journal Hommes et migrations, Migrations et sociétés et Esprit. She has undertaken extensive fieldwork research on the relationship between migration trends and politics in France and her comparative research on migration flows, migration policies and citizenship policies in Europe and abroad are part of the project "Migrations et relations internationales" that she coordinates at CERI. She also teaches on the inter-relations between migration issues, globalisation and international relations at Sciences Po.

Yannis Alexandros (Dr.),

Policy Unit, General Secretariat of the Council of the European Union, Brussels

e-mail: alexandros.yannis@consilium.europa.eu

Dr. Alexandros Yannis studied Law and International Relations in the Law School of Athens University, the Graduate Institute of International Studies of the Geneva University and the School of International and Public Affairs of Columbia University in New York. He worked as an Advisor to the European Union Special Envoy to Somalia (1994-1997) and the Special Representative of the United Nations Secretary General in Kosovo (1999-2000) as well as in the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights in Geneva (2001). Since 2002, he has been working in the Council of the European Union in Brussels for the European Union High Representative for Common Foreign and Security Policy, Dr Javier Solana, focusing on the Balkans and the Caucasus, including being member of the EU Kosovo Status negotiations team. He has extensive field experience in Africa, the Balkans and the Caucasus and has lectured and published widely on various issues in international relations, including a book on "Kosovo Under International Administration". He is Research Associate with the Hellenic Foundation for European and Foreign Policy (ELIAMEP) in Athens and a member of the Advisory Board of the Balkan Trust for Democracy in Belgrade. From September 2008, he will be the Constantine Karamanlis Associate Professor at the Fletcher School in Boston.